

Kerr Report Shows Saving Of $0.78 Per $100 Assessed Valuation For Home Owners In Incorporated Area

Leslie Kerr, member of the committee for Campbell incorporation, presented figures in a report on cost of incorporation this week which give proof of savings equivalent to $0.78 per $100 on the average assessed valuation of home owners of the district. Such savings would be made available through the reduction of PG&E rates for areas inside the corporate areas. Source of the information contained in the report is cited as PG&E rate schedules for the San Jose area and are available to anyone upon request.

Text of Kerr's report follows:

All consumers of electric current and domestic gas who are located within the corporate limits of Campbell will receive substantial reductions in their monthly bills from the PG&E. However, these reductions will not take effect until after the town of Campbell has been incorporated as a sixth-class city.

The exact dollar and cents value of such consumer savings cannot be given at this time because, in general: (1) essential population data is not at hand; and, usually, the city rates are based (more or less) on the number of inhabitants—the larger the city, the lower the rates. (2) The present rate structure is being revised; and, (3) it has not been determined whether the city of Campbell will take rates specified by Schedule number 4 or number 3—the latter being lower.

The present rate schedules for the town of Campbell are: No. 5 to cover the closely built-up areas; and, No. 6 covering the open space or rural territory. In the event of city incorporation, a new and single rate structure will be established to cover the entire city area, thus the "open space" consumer will receive a greater proportionate rate reduction.

For the purpose of this study, it is assumed that the new city rate for Campbell will be the same as for Los Gatos, namely, number 4. However, it is possible a lower rate may be appropriate. The application of the present Schedule 4 rates to the present Campbell areas produces an annual meter-unit reduction of between $7.32 and $9.00 (depending on meter consumption) in the closely built-up areas; and, from $13.24 to $25.32 in the open space areas.

In addition to a saving on domestic gas and electric current consumption, the "open space" resident will receive other pecuniary benefits in the way of a reduction on fire insurance rates (under certain conditions), garbage collection costs, etc. And, will also enjoy the blessings of city conveniences as well as organized protection to person and property.

Assuming that the assessed valuation of the average home property in the Campbell area is around $2,400, let us figure what the average home-owner would have to pay in additional taxes, if the town of Campbell were incorporated and the maximum legal city tax rate of $1.00 was applied to such property. (This figure is used merely as an example and is not a suggestion that such a rate is or will be necessary. There is no minimum legal rate.) Standing alone, the increased taxes would be $24.00. But, with credits received as a direct result of city incorporation, the total tax will be reduced to a nominal amount. And, if the tax rate is lowered to the point of actual need, the increase will vanish entirely. As a matter of fact, many home-owners and practically all renters should and will receive more money-value than they pay out.

Many sources of revenue will accrue to the incorporated city of Campbell other than from property taxes. The two major items being tax-refunds received from the State of California and reduction in charges by the PG&E on account of consumption of domestic gas and electric current.

The subject of State Subventions has been fully covered in previous reports. Suffice it to say here that if every adult residing within the Campbell area will register as an elector, the amount of tax-refund received from the State of California on account of gasoline taxes and motor vehicle license fees will be ample to operate the city of Campbell without aid of property taxes. The refunds for year ending June 30, 1951, is estimated at $19.68 for each registered voter. The gasoline tax refund is earmarked for and should be sufficient to maintain the city streets. The license fee refunds, estimated at $3.69 per city inhabitant (man, woman and child) may be used for various purposes.

Before proceeding with any determination of effect of PG&E reductions: (1) assessed property value within the proposed corporate area is placed at $5,500,000 (does not include recent county increases), home-owner property as $4,500,000, and rentals (including commercials) at $1,000,000; (2) average value of home owner property at $2,400 and rentals at $5,000—the latter includes low-cost rentals and commercial properties; (3) number of meter-unit connections at home-owner properties at 2,200, rentals and commercial as 500, power users as ten meter-units, actual number of street lights is 183. One gas meter and one electric meter is considered as a single meter-unit.

The following savings are confined to domestic gas and electric current consumption. The entire Campbell area is covered and the figures are based on data as of December 1, 1951.

Meter Unit	Consumer	Monthly Savings	Yearly Total
2000	home owner	$ 6.60	$ 78.00
200	home owner	11.04	132.48
450	rentals	6.60	79.20
50	commercials	6.60	79.20
10	power	6.60	79.20
183	street lights	83.33	1,000.00

Equivalent tax rate—$0.78
$1.00 city tax on $5,500,000; less exemptions $50,000

Equivalent tax rate—$0.22	Deficiency	$10,986
Home-owner tax at $0.22 on $2,400		$5.28
Cost per capita, city population of 8,000		$1.37
Cost per average family, $137x3.3		$4.51
Average net per capita savings to renters		$9.00

The reduction in costs of domestic gas and electric current is based on user consumption and not on property assessment. The consumer receives the entire benefit, unless rental includes facilities. Consequently, the landlord is not likely to be very enthusiastic about the benefits you will receive as a renter, more especially if he owns several rental units.

The Campbell Lighting District contains 183 electric street-lights. As a city, the electric current costs would be reduced to the extent of approximately $1,000 in the aggregate, annually. At present, costs of operation and maintenance are included as a part of the county tax collections—see Code Area 62, under Special District Rate. In the event of incorporation, the city of Campbell would assume full responsibilities. The costs could be paid from the general fund of the city or by assessment as a part of the city tax rate. This also applies to the costs of maintaining the Campbell Fire Department. In other words, you are now taxed for support of your fire department. The only change will be that the tax will be collected by the city.

The following tabulation will give property owners, renters, consumers, and other readers, some idea of their individual savings. Consumer costs as of December 1, 1951 — Campbell area.

PG&E Services	Quantity	PG&E Charge	City	Town	Month	Year

Domestic Gas (7500 C.F.)		4.93		5.85	0.92	11.04

*The electric rates are in process of revision.

In case of desire to secure more complete details in order to be able to calculate your personal savings, you may obtain copies of rate schedules from the PG&E office in San Jose. The rate schedules are lettered "D" to cover domestic electric service; "C" to cover general light and power; and, a separate schedule covering domestic gas rates. If you are interested in costs of operating home appliances, ask for copy of "Electric Domestic Appliances—Average Kilowatt Use."

EDITORIAL

The primary interest of most people who are considering entering into a form of government which is new to the locality is the effect such a move might have on their financial status. Residents, home owners, and businessmen all want to know what will be the cost to them in dollars and cents.

Such is the case with the proposed incorporation of the Town of Campbell. The Press has always felt that incorporation would benefit the town and its residents. To those who have some financial misgivings about the cost of incorporation, however, the Kerr Report published in this issue provides substantial proof of savings which are available above and beyond any property tax which might be assessed.

Principal savings which would be available to residents of the incorporated City of Campbell would be in reductions of PG&E rates. Such savings which would be made available to gas and electric users would come through the mandatory ruling of the Public Utilities Commission which requires that public utilities such as the PG&E extend a reduced rate to consumers within an "inside" or incorporated area. Figures used in showing rate reductions in the Kerr Report are beyond question or doubt. They do not come from "estimates" on the part of members of committee for Campbell incorporation, but directly from rate schedules of the PG&E for the San Jose area and are available to anyone upon request.

Actual yearly savings on PG&E rates would amount to $18.72 based on the actual number of meters in the area and average consumption of residential, business and industrial establishments. Using the average assessed valuation of $2,400 for residential dwellings in the area, this amount is equal to a property tax of $0.78 per $100 assessed valuation.

While the legal limit for property tax is set by law at $1.00 per $100 assessed valuation, comparative studies of property tax rates in comparable cities have shown that such a tax rate would be altogether unnecessary for the newly incorporated City of Campbell. It is even possible to operate the city efficiently without the benefit of any property tax. Should the city find it necessary, however, to levy the legal limit of $1.00, yearly tax increase on homes assessed at the average $2,400 would amount to 24 dollars. This means that even if the maximum legal property tax were levied, the actual difference paid by the homeowner (taxes minus savings) would amount to only $5.28.

Some of the greatest opposition to incorporation comes from holders of large rental units, who in most cases would not benefit by savings from rate reductions. Unless arrangements were so made in the lease, the renters of such property would be entitled to the full amount of savings from rate reductions.

With these facts in mind let us examine statements by opponents to incorporation who claim that tax increase would make the move financially unsound. To the average home owner, any tax increase beyond $0.22 per $100 assessed valuation would be impossible. To the renter, rate reductions would amount to an average saving of $18.72 per year.

Incorporation will affect your home and your pocketbook. You have a right to know the unbiased facts and figures about the costs and benefits involved. When someone tells you how much incorporation will cost you, make them prove their statements. Ask them for their source of information, and ask them if the same sources for figures are available to you as they are for the figures which we have just given.

FUND DRIVE FAR BELOW GOAL

The drive for additional contributions to the community service fund will continue until a figure which is closer to the goal is attained, General Chairman Eugene W. Barnes announced this week. Total collected to date is approximately $6,500 of the $14,000 goal. Barnes stated that no suggestion of ending the campaign has been made and said that the goal must be at least approached before the drive for additional funds is brought to a close.

The drive, which has been under way for the past two and a half months, has been poorly met in the area and workers have asked residents to mail their checks made out to the Community Service Fund Drive to either The Campbell Press or to Betty Youngman at the Campbell High School.

A spokesman for the drive said this week that he wished to remind residents of the area that all workers and help with the campaign is volunteer and that only a small amount of the funds collected goes for secretarial help and office supplies.

Members are requested to bring toys and other items which might be used by needy families. Added feature of the party will be the awarding of the Christmas doll.

Charles Woodcock is the present owner of the establishment.

WEEK LONG STORM CAUSES ONLY MINOR DAMAGE IN CAMPBELL AREA

The storm which brought extensive damage to San Francisco and other bay area cities during the latter part of last week and the first part of this week, caused little damage in the Campbell area. Although winds up to 35 miles per hour brought 3.19 inches of rain to Campbell, only minor damage was done in stoppage of storm sewers and public utility services.

Santa Clara County Schools go on television on Dec. 14 in a program on "Outdoor Education and Conservation." The program is one of a series, "Operation Education," worked out by the Bay Area Public School Television Council. The series has been running every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:45 to 11 a. m. since Nov. 26.

The council is made up of teachers and superintendents from Bay Area schools, and is an effort to bring the work of the public schools, to the attention of the public. The council currently is looking into the possibility of operating a non-commercial television station for educational programs alone.

RESIDENTS ARGUE THE VALUE OF INCORPORATION AT BOARD MEET; SECOND HEARING SET FOR TUESDAY

Approximately fifty persons gathered in the supervisors chambers Monday to support and dispute issues brought out by the first hearing on petitions calling for a special election for the incorporation of the town of Campbell.

NEW HARDWARE STORE TO OPEN

Announcement was made this week of the opening of the Winchester Hardware Saturday by Jack L. Arends, owner. Arends stated that the business, located at 87 S. Winchester road, will carry a complete line of hardware and homeware, including garden and paint supplies. Arends is accompanied by his father, John T. Arends.

The owner of the new business is married and he and his wife, Virginia, are expecting their first child in April. He is a veteran of World War II and served in the Pacific for three years with the Army. He moved here from Huron, South Dakota, and is related to the Arends who are proprietors of the Campbell Lumber Company.

BPWC TO ENTER COUNCIL RACE

Dorothy Ellis, president of the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club, announced this week that the members are seeking a candidate to run for the office of councilman in the anticipated incorporation election. She stated that the club has contacted several women but have not yet received an answer in regard to their request.

She cited the need for having at least one woman as a member of the city council, stating that members felt that women should be represented in city government. "We also believe that a woman often has more time than a man to devote to such a job," she remarked. "We don't plan to run a candidate on any particular platform, but just wish to make sure that anyone we select is morally fit and has the requirements for such a post," she added.

JOINS NAVY

The San Jose Navy Recruiting Station announced today that Calvin Delbert Barnett, 17, son of Mrs. Bertha Barnett, of 56 Casey Road, has been accepted for enlistment in the Regular Navy as Seaman Recruit and sent to San Diego for eleven weeks of recruit training. Prior to his enlistment, Calvin attended Campbell Union High.

Opponents to the measure voiced disapproval to the measure on the grounds that the county is now providing all services which the proposed City of Campbell could in a better manner and at less cost to the taxpayer and stated that many of them moved to outlying areas to "get into the country, away from urban developments."

Chief areas in dispute centered around the southwest portion of the boundaries and in the northeast section of the proposed city. Attorney Edward J. Nelson, opposition leader in the southwest portion, stated that his clients were almost 100 percent against incorporation and cited their reasons as increased taxes and "doubtful value of city services."

Attorney Richard W. Morton, representing Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd and the Ainsley Corp., requested that lands on the extreme northeastern portion of the boundaries be excluded.

R. S. Kaiser, Jewell Drive, representing residents of the Cambrian area, protested on the grounds that residents of the Cambrian School District did not wish to see their school district broken up. He added that the Cambrian fire station would be surrounded by the boundaries. "We have a fire station in the Cambrian area which Campbell won't be able to equal for years," he said. "Our firehouse will be surrounded by the city if incorporation goes through."

Proponents of the incorporation issue countered opposition claims point by point. Ona Chubb, Rex Kaber and Emory Garrison, interested residents of the southwest portion of the city, stated that claims by opposition attorney Nelson could not possibly be true. They stated that a petition with nearly 100 percent dissent to incorporation could not be accurate in view of the fact that original petitions for incorporation had 75 percent of the residents of the Old Orchard Lane - Kenneth Avenue area as signers.

In opposition to claims by R. S. Kaiser, proponents pointed out that Kaiser was not even a resident of the area in dispute and stated that claims that the Cambrian fire house would be surrounded by boundaries of the city were erroneous and misleading in view of the fact that the present boundaries of the proposed city were at least one-half mile from the fire house at their nearest point.

They also claimed that it would be legally impossible for the formation of a sixth class city such as is planned for Campbell to in any way affect the boundaries of the Cambrian School District.

Incorporation leaders pointed out that territory in dispute by the Ainsley Corp. and Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd consisted of a 200 foot wide strip of land which made up a portion of the Lloyd ranch in the northeast portion of the proposed city.

Don Reineohl, chairman of the incorporation boundaries committee, outlined boundaries of the proposed city to members of the board of supervisors.

Attorney Timothy A. O'Connor represented proponents for incorporation at the hearing.

Supervisors set December 11 at 10 a.m. as the date and time of the next hearing to be held on the issue.

CAMPBELL COUNTRY WOMEN HEAR CHOIR AT CHRISTMAS TEA

Vocal music by the Campbell Union High School a cappella choir under the direction of Frank Triena was the highlight of the very successful Campbell Country Woman's Christmas party Monday afternoon in the clubrooms.

Among the selections sung by the group were "Lost in the Night," with the soprano solo by Ruth Courtney and the "Wassail Song," both numbers which will be sung by the choir at the combined choir festival in the Civic Auditorium in San Jose Friday night. Another outstanding number was "No Candle Was There and No Fire," a French carol with Robert Adolfo singing the solo part.

During the afternoon, Mrs. W. R. Morgan, Child Welfare Chairman for the club, expressed her thanks for the generous contribution to the San Jose Juvenile Hall Christmas fund. Anyone desiring to contribute clothing, either used or new, is requested to get in touch with Mrs. Morgan or club president, Mrs. Lowell Benson. The next meeting will be held in January.

Decorations of many colored candles, green boughs and red berries created the Christmas atmosphere while the tea table with the traditional Wassail bowl was covered with a beautiful embroidered linen cloth centered with Christmas greenery and decorations. Mrs. Benson presided at the punch bowl. As members arrived at the clubhouse, they were each presented with a berry and green corsage. Mrs. Emil Kollmer served as general chairman for the affair.

Annual Birthday Observed By Local Gift Shop

Other interesting effects were created by Mrs. Monica Parr, who decorated a manzanita branch with colored Christmas balls and filled a crabnet basket with poinsettias.

The tea table in the patio was covered with a yellow cloth centered with white daisies and lighted candles and silver Christmas balls. Greeting the guests as they signed the guest book were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fish, while Mrs. Parr assisted by Mrs. Frank Jacobson presided over the tea table.

Ensign Donald A. Smith, reported missing several weeks ago by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Sunnyside Ave., has been identified as a member of the crew of the Navy patrol bomber shot down by Russian flyers on November 6 while on duty in the Far Eastern Theatre.

The Smiths received a telegram from the Defense Dept. on Nov. 8 stating that their son had been missing for several days and that a search was underway for the missing craft. Mrs. Smith states that they have received no official word since but that they believe their son was a navigator on the craft.

High School Plans Christmas Program

Rehearsals are under way for the annual production of the high school drama and music departments' Christmas program to be held on Dec. 18 and 19 in the high school auditorium. First performance of the program will be given for children of the community and the Dec. 19 showing will be held for all members of the community. No charge is being made for the program which is labeled as the group's Christmas gift to the community.

First part of the program will consist of a musical arrangement utilizing the services of the high school choir and the orchestra. The choir will enter in a candle light procession and will sing Christmas carols and the orchestra will follow with Christmas arrangements.

Second part of the program will be devoted to a Christmas play, "Why The Chimes Rang". Story of the play concerns a church whose steeple is so high that no one has seen the bells. The prophecy is that the chimes will ring only when the high school perfect gift is given to God.

Kenneth Wallace, director of the program, states that this year's production will include new lighting effects, stage sets, and a variety of colorful costumes.

Guest Speaker Appears At Adventist Meet

Mr. Ronald Streeter, formerly at Campion Academy in Colorado, now living in San Jose where he is cashier for the Central California Campbell Seventh-day Adventist Church. He spoke on the importance of a garden in the history of mankind.

Referring to the Garden of Eden, man's first home, Mr. Streeter said, "In that garden was the River of Life and the Tree of Life. In the garden was another tree, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. This tree was to be a test of man's allegiance to his Creator. Man disobeyed—partook of the fruit of the forbidden tree and was driven from the garden; so Adam and his descendants passed under the condemnation of death. But with the sentence of death came the promise of a Redeemer," said Mr. Streeter. "As the first man, Adam, lost the greatest battle of his life in a garden and traded the Tree of Life for the bitter fruit of sin, so Christ the Son of God, won His greatest battle in the Garden of Gethsemane."

At the close of the service, another guest of the day, Eugene Hughes, sang "The Garden of Prayer", accompanied at the piano by his daughter, Marilyn Hughes from Pacific Union College.

Merchant Suggests Store Decoration

A suggestion to decorate stores of Campbell merchants and award prizes in lieu of Christmas decorations this year is gaining momentum among Campbell businessmen. The suggestion, made by Joe Faserro, proprietor of J and A Market, involves the decorating of stores and store windows and the awarding of prizes for the best stores.

Harold Estenson, chairman of the merchants' committee of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce and local businessman, stated that he was very much in favor of instituting some such plan. Jack Payne, president of the Chamber of Commerce, also stated that he thought the suggestion was an excellent idea. Additional merchants have signified their willingness to cooperate in such a plan.

Faserro said that he felt that the town should recognize the Christmas season in some manner and felt that if each merchant handled decorations for his own store, he could spend as much or as little as he thought appropriate. He expressed his dissatisfaction with Christmas lights which have been hung over the streets in former years.

Decision to withhold stringing of Christmas lights came after a meeting of the merchant's committee last week in which a subcommittee reported that stringing of lights would involve additional expense due to the necessity of attaching a specially constructed cable to new light poles.

WHIST PARTY

Plans for the Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce Whist Party to be held at 7:30 p. m. in the high school gymnasium on Dec. 8 are progressing according to schedule, a spokesman for the group announced this week. Proceeds from the whist party will be used in financing the annual children's day at the Campbell Theater. Next meeting of the group will be held on Dec. 12 in the new Chamber building. Members have completed seeding of the lawn and planting of shrubbery.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, December 9, for which the first verse in Genesis will be the Golden Text: "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

Citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will comprise the sermon, from which the following are taken:

Job: "Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict" (37:23).

Science and Health: "God is the infinite, and infinity never began, will never end, and includes nothing unlike God" (p. 249).

Traffic Deaths May Reach All-time High

The people of Santa Clara County still have a last chance to avoid breaking an all-time record for traffic fatalities this year, according to the Santa Clara County Safety Council.

This was the hopeful note struck by spokesmen for the Safety Council yesterday in commenting on the accident rate for 1951.

"Actually, statistics are against us," said Kevin Twohy, Managing Director of the organization, "and only the most extreme care and use of common sense can 'save the year' from establishing the bloody all-time record for traffic deaths."

So far, the Safety Council pointed out, one hundred and thirty-four persons have met violent death in county traffic accidents, not to mention the thousands injured in those accidents.

"On the basis of eleven months of the year, this is an average of over thirteen deaths per month and bodes ill for the month of Dec.," Twohy said. "If the monthly average of thirteen holds true for Dec. we will reach a total of one hundred and forty-seven fatalities, or eight over the all-time high of one hundred and thirty-nine which was reached in 1946."

The Safety Council voiced an appeal to all motorists to use more than ordinary care during this month, when weather conditions and increased traffic add to the normal road dangers.

Former Pastor Visits Local Church Saturday

Elder and Mrs. C. Bufano, formerly of Campbell, where Elder Bufano served as pastor of the Campbell Seventh-day Adventist church for a number of years, were visitors at the local church Saturday December 1. Recently Elder Bufano was transferred to Oakdale as district leader over four Seventh-day Adventist churches in that vicinity. From Oakdale, Elder Bufano has been called to Chicago to serve as pastor of one of the Seventh-day Adventist churches in that city.

With Elder and Mrs. Bufano on Saturday morning were their daughter Faith, and her husband Arthur Rawleigh Heald, Jr., of Palo Alto. A group of Italian members from San Jose also visited the Campbell church to hear their former pastor in his farewell sermon. He spoke to them in their own language for a few moments at the beginning of the service; then by special request he told the juniors a personal experience of a remarkable deliverance from danger; basing his remarks on the text in Psalms 34:7 "The Angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him, and delivereth them." Special music consisted of a trio sung by Mrs. Dorothy Patton; Mrs. Rawleigh Heald and C. Bufano, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bufano. The main sermon for the day was based on the 13th chapter of 1 Corinthians, particularly the eight verse which says, "Charity never faileth." Elder and Mrs. Bufano were planning to leave Palo Alto early this week for Chicago where they will enter upon their new duties December 8. The prayers and good wishes of the members of the Campbell Seventh-day Adventist church will accompany their former pastor and his wife as they leave sunny California.

Hearing Nears On Quito Lights

Recent acceptance by the county board of supervisors of a petition calling for the formation of a lighting district in the Quito-Workman tract area indicates that first hearing of the board on the matter will be held some time in January. The petition, signed by approximately 175 property owners in the area, calls for the formation of a special lighting district which would be bounded by the approximate limits of the two tracts.

A spokesman for the board stated this week that before hearings can be held, letters must be sent out to all property owners in the area. The petition, which calls for the initial erection of approximately 70 lights in the district, must be approved by the board of supervisors after protest hearings are held. Should the board approve the petition by February, lights could be in operation by the first of July, 1952.

Circulation of the petition started in the early part of October and was strongly supported by members of the Quito Club, civic organization in the area.

TEARS AND afterthoughts—Coach Bert Robinson's 130 cagers have shown promise this season despite the lack of wins in two contests. In their season opener with Willow Glen, the locals were beaten entirely in the third period when the Willow Glen five fielded a squad with a tight, pressing man to man defense, yielding only one Campbell tally while they went on to score 13 points and take the lead away from the Bucs. The Bucs improved enough in the last period to keep even with their opponent's record of nine points but failed to score enough to make up the heavy debit which they were handed in the third quarter.

Playing a vastly better team Tuesday when they met the San Jose Bulldogs, the locals managed to bring the game to such a close finish that a minute either way might have made the difference between victory and defeat. Robinson's main woes seem to center around the fact that the Buc 130's seem to lack the aggressiveness to put it over in the clutch.

The blonde cage mentor has been toying with the idea of shifting Cowden, who has played in both varsity tilts as a second string guard, up into the first string spot. Cowden has shown promise in both games with a scoring record of four in the Willow Glen game and two against San Jose.

Just heard that John Mondos and brother-in-law Wm. Welch are planning a hunting trip to Ukiah in the company of four dogs and three horses to test their luck against the prowess of black bears in the region. Plans are all laid for a date sometime just before Xmas but the stork may beat them to it. Seems that John and wife Florence expect additions to the family right around the holidays. Incidentally, Mrs. John is no slouch at this hunting business herself. She and John went after deer last year in the company of several other local nimrods and she was the only one who brought back venison. And she didn't fool around with the little ones either—but brought back a 12 pointer.

PRIZES—If this dept. had anything to give away that vaguely resembled the form of an award, we'd send it right over to Don Lukehart for his fine play on the Buc grid squad this year. Don played heads up ball all season long in his forward wall position—a task that isn't easy to do when you're faced with one defeat after another. Hard work always pays off though and Don was rewarded with a spot on the coaches' all SCVAL grid eleven. Namba and Anderson also took lesser honors with a spot on the second string.

PRIZE of the week goes to Dick Lazzarini, local maketman, who wasn't satisfied with only turkey for Thanksgiving—Dick had journeyed down to have dinner with his family in Los Banos and spent all his time, which wasn't taken up with eating turkey, in hunting. His tally? Two pheasants.

POST MORTEM—Now that the Buc's have completed what appears to be at least a statistically unsuccessful grid season, we'd like to look over the record and see just what the locals did gain from a season which brought them six losses. Most important factor gained from the winless round of contests was, of course, the valuable experience in ball handling for next year's squad. The Bucs started out slow but showed a vastly improved defensive team as the season progressed. During the last portion of the season, they showed ability to push opposing teams about the field almost at will. Big hole in the defensive unit, and one which cost them some games, was their lack of pass defense. Lack of experience in ball handling on the part of the offensive unit and absence of that nebulous factor labeled "scoring punch" spelled the difference between what might have been an upper division team and the cellar spot. Costly fumbles also cost the Bucs more than one tilt. The experience gained this year should pay off in what Coach Muir calls a better balanced, more efficient squad. In addition to a well experienced, strong line, the Bucs will have vastly greater experience in their key back field spots.

Cal's victory over the Stanford "How" boys was good for one ride down Campbell Ave. for Joe Fasel. He and Joe Agostinho placed a bet on the Big Game with the penalty that the loser would wheel the winner down Campbell Ave. in a wheel barrow. Wonder if Joe F. had a nice ride?

George Miskulin's grunt and groan squad is signing up wrestlers for the opening of the season in January. The last year's champions will have only two returning veterans to boost them long the way. George's biggest fears center around Fremont and Santa Clara. First meet of the year will be held on January 14 against Los Gatos. While the Wildcats will enter their second year of competition when they meet Campbell, Miskulin expects them to show a vastly improved team.

Bucs Lose Twin Bill To San Jose Cage Squad

A snarling San Jose Bulldog gobbled up a hapless Buc varsity cage team Tuesday to the tune of a 24-40 victory. The San Joseans took an early lead and scored almost at will as the Bulldog coach used every man on the bench to humble Campbell.

Sternel took honors for San Jose with ten tallies and was followed by Buccaneer Hansen with a total of seven digits.

The preliminaries saw a fighting Buc 130 team lose a nip and tuck 20-22 battle. The lightweights took a 9-6 lead at the end of the first period, but a steadily climbing Bulldog squad managed to pass them in the second period to lead by a scant 12-11 margin.

A come-back try in the last period in which the Bucs scored six points to their opponents four fell short of tying the tilt as the San Joseans emerged victors by a two-point margin.

West Point, Navy Exams Scheduled For January 14

Competitive examinations for West Point and Annapolis will be held on Jan. 14, Congressman Jack Z. Anderson announced today.

The January examinations, conducted by the Civil Service Commission, will determine candidates for vacancies which have recently occurred for 1952. All applications must be in Anderson's office by Dec. 5.

At this time, Anderson said, it appears there will be one vacancy at Annapolis and one at West Point. One principal and three alternates will be appointed for each vacancy on the basis of the competitive examination.

On July 1 of the year of entrance to the United States Military Academy of the United States Naval Academy candidates must be not less than 17 and not more than 22 years of age.

Young men interested in these appointments should write immediately to Congressman Jack Z. Anderson, 201 Bank of America Building, San Jose, for details.

Willow Glen Takes Double Header From Local Cagers

An outclassed Buc varsity five saw the Willow Glen cagers take an early lead and romp to a substantial 36-28 victory over the locals last Friday afternoon in the cage season opener. Sparked by Guard Deckert with 16 tallies, the Willow Glen team had little difficulty forging to an early lead and managed to stave off a final period comeback try when the Bucs scored ten points and held their opponents to a mere five digits.

Hill and Barton tied for Campbell high point honors with eight each while Deckert gained laurels for himself and his team with a total of 16.

In the preliminary, a rejuvenated Willow Glen cage team bounced back from the short end of a 17-11 half-time score to dump the Campbell Bucs 130 cagers, 27-33. After taking an early lead which they pushed to as much as 13-4 at one time, the Bucs met a tightening man to man defense by Willow Glen which held them to only one tally in the third period while their opponents went on to 13 digits during the same time. Both teams scored nine points in the final period as the game drew to a close with Willow Glen on the top of a 33-27 score. High point man for the contest was Kelly of Campbell.

KIDS GET REPORT CARDS; PARENTS TOLD METHODS OF GRADING STUDENTS

For youngsters of Campbell Union School District, the big item of the week has been report cards. Many presented them proudly to the family, and as usual, there were some who came home bracing themselves against the explosion that would come when father looked over the grades. The report card is a traditional link between home and school. In the past, in many cases, it was the only link. Report card day had an atmosphere of the day of judgment. Educators, however, have tried to make the report card more than a bare statement of academic accomplishment. The written form has slowly changed in an attempt to give a more complete and accurate picture of the child's progress in school. In line with recent educational trends, the district this year is emphasizing the use of parent-teacher conferences as an important part of the reporting system.

There are two kinds of conferences—group and individual. During the group conference, the teacher talks with the parents of her class, explaining the work to be accomplished during the year, showing the texts and methods used. In the individual conference a single parent meets with the teacher to talk over the progress and problems of the individual child.

Inspector Uses Nose, Nabs Cafe Thieves

A sharp nose and quick action led to the arrest of three gum chewing desperadoes charged with robbing the Cozy Cafe last week. The bandits, boys aged 12, 14, and 15 years, were captured less than five minutes after the arrival of Sheriff's Inspectors Cecil Hooton and Fred Goudy on the scene of the crime.

Pete Spragia, owner of the cafe notified the sheriff's office that his establishment had been entered and robbed of approximately $30 in cash and a carton of Juicy Fruit chewing gum. After questioning Spragia, the two inspectors noticed a 15-year old boy chewing a large amount of gum. Goudy asked the youth what kind of gum he was chewing, and he replied that it was a different brand.

Goudy, however, noticed the tell-tale sweet odor of the gum and immediately became suspicious. As the pair returned to the cafe, Spragia saw the boy and stated that he had been hanging around the restaurant earlier in the morning. The inspectors caught up with the gum chewing bandit and received a confession from him after additional questioning. His two cohorts were found also chewing large amounts of the sweet gum.

One of the boys later confessed to other crimes including the burglary of a large San Jose department store and turned over several stolen items.

Planners Refuse To Reconsider Tilson Shopping Center Issue

Plans of Tilson and Sanfilippo for a shopping center at the intersection of Saratoga and Quito roads met a setback Wednesday when the County Planning Commission refused to reconsider their previous denial of the pair for rezoning the shopping center site to commercial property. This latest development in the subdividers' battle for a shopping center followed an appeal to the board of supervisors in which the supervisors referred the application to the planning commission for further reconsideration. Supervisors had approved the appeal.

Members of the planning commission continued to object to the move on grounds that it would create a traffic hazard in the area. A report showing the increase in traffic accidents since the development of the subdivision was submitted to the commission. Final decision on whether or not the pair will receive approval on their petition for rezoning rests with the board of supervisors.

In other action Wednesday, the board approved additions to the rear of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph substation located on the west side of South Second street between Campbell and Everett avenues; approved petition by Nicholas Colombo for rezoning to commercial use property located between Payne Avenue and Colombo drive which Colombo wishes to use as additional parking space for a planned commercial development; denied petition of Enrico Ortolan to reclassify property located on the Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road from residential to commercial property. The Ortolan denial followed direction of the board of supervisors to reconsider a previous denial of the commission on the issue. Planners claimed that rezoning would prohibit planned widening of the road at that point and would thus cause a traffic hazard.

How Does Christian Science Heal?

THE DISAPPEARANCE of organic and functional disease, as well as of trouble in other forms, is continually recorded among those who have turned to Christian Science for help.

The method of such overcoming of difficulty is prayer—a spiritually scientific manner of thinking based on the teaching of Christ Jesus.

What this prayer is and how anyone can understand it and use it effectually in accordance with his need are fully explained in the Christian Science textbook.
